Lecture section instructions will start on Tuesday, January 10.

Tutorial section instructions will start on Wednesday, January 11.

--- If you cannot attend the lecture or tutorial class you signed up for, please notify your lecturer.

Instruction for enrolling in <http://sections.ucsd.edu/>.

Login

- Students select the course JAPN 20B – Second Year Japanese II [WI17] from the drop down list and login with their PID.
- Concurrent enrollment students must have an ACMS account for the course and use the uXXXXXXXX number on file with ACMS. Concurrent enrollment students can get an account by going to <http://sdacs.ucsd.edu/~icc/ce.php>.

Registered Students

- Can enroll in any section that has an opening.
- Can change their enrollment at any time during open enrollment.
- Dropped students will automatically be removed from their sections.
- Switching a lecture section to another is the same as dropping the course and you will automatically be removed from your tutorial section as well.

Students who are on the waitlist or are crashing the course

- Students not registered for the course rank their section preferences.
- Once a student is officially registered for the course they should check <http://sections.ucsd.edu/> the next day after 8 am to see which section (if any) they were enrolled in.

The registration status job runs every morning at 8 am.

- All the newly registered students for that day are added to a section based on when they made their section ranking.
- If none of the ranked sections are open, the student will not be automatically added to any section.
